

Brookings Police Department
Becomes an Affiliate Agency with Internet Crimes Against Children
Task Force (ICAC)

BRING YOUR DREAMS.

What is ICAC Task Force?

National network of Law Enforcement agencies dedicated to combating online child exploitation

Funded by the United States Department of Justice

Currently 17 affiliate agencies in South Dakota

5,200+ agencies across the country

What Does an Affiliate Agency Do?

1

Investigate internet crimes against children

2

Conduct digital evidence collection

3

Support victim identification

4

Provide community education

Benefits of Becoming an Affiliate Agency

Training

- Specialized investigator training
- Digital forensics training

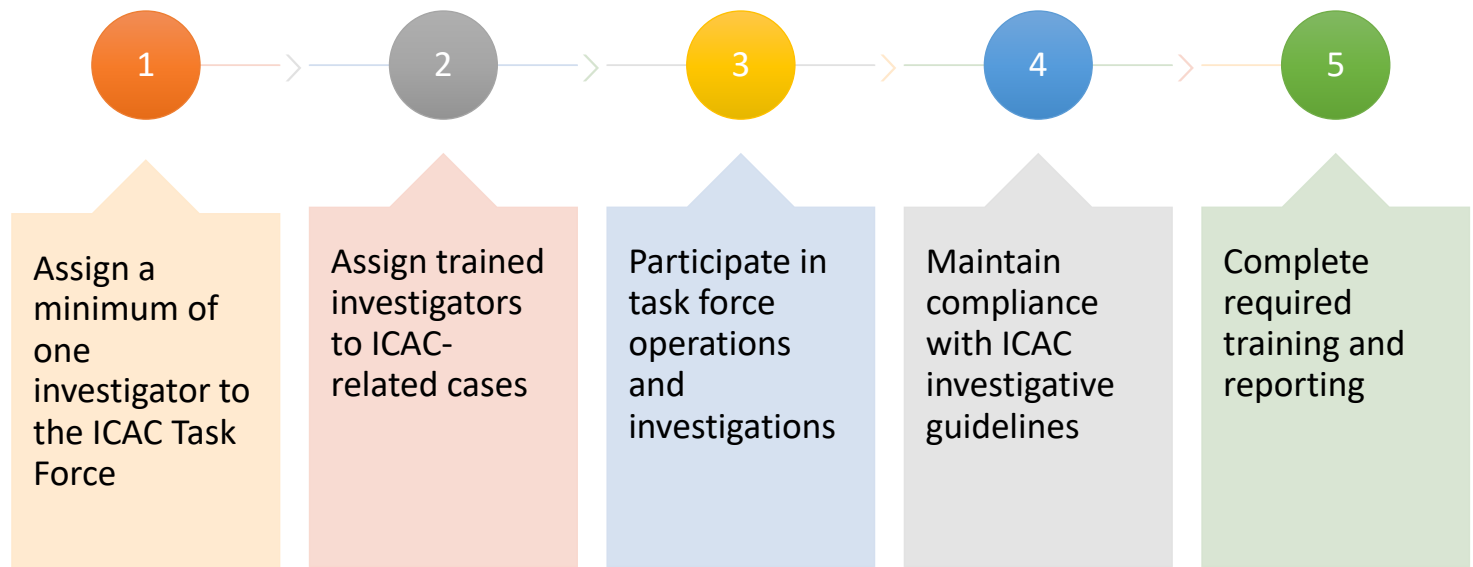

Resources

- Access to investigative databases
- Technical and forensic support
- Intelligence Sharing

Funding Opportunities

- Potential equipment grants
- Potential overtime reimbursement for operations

Responsibilities as an Affiliate Agency

Impact on Our Community

Improve

Improve our ability to identify and rescue victims

Strengthen

Strengthen investigations involving online child exploitation

Provide

Provide proactive enforcement over reactive responses

Increase

Increase community education and prevention

Financial Consideration

No direct financial cost to the City

Grant funded program

All training is covered

Potential for equipment reimbursement already purchased or owned by the City