

Full-Time Officers:

Easton Thury, Patrol Officer

NEW EMPLOYEE ANNOUNCEMENT

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Brookings Police Department is excited to announce Easton Thury as the newest Patrol Officer with the City of Brookings Police Department on March 16th, 2024.

Easton was previously a CSO for the Brookings Police Department for 9 months. Easton is a senior at South Dakota State University majoring in Business Economics and minoring in Marketing.

When not at work, Easton enjoys hunting, fishing, and fitness. Easton loves to be around his family and friends. Easton would rather be outdoors and in the summer can be seen on the golf course.

Cora Olson, Patrol Officer

NEW EMPLOYEE ANNOUNCEMENT

POLICE DEPARTMENT

Cora Olson started her professional career as an EMT and volunteer reserve deputy in Montana before moving to South Dakota in 2002. Cora was hired by SDSU as a dispatcher in 2002 then moved to a Law Enforcement position in 2003 working 13 years on patrol and criminal investigations. Cora served as a law enforcement community liaison on multiple board committees and served with volunteer organizations both on Campus and in Brookings during her time with the SDSU Police Department.

In July 2016, Cora was hired by the South Dakota Highway Patrol as a Victims' Specialist under the newly established Victims' Services Division and Crash Assistance Program with the responsibility to be a liaison between those effected by fatal and life-threatening crashes and criminal justice services.

In July 2019, Cora assumed the South Dakota Victims' Services (SDVS) Program Director role overseeing Grants to Victims' Services, Prosecution and Law Enforcement Agencies across the state as well as the Crime Victims' Compensation Program which provides monetary assistance to victims injured as a result of a crime.

Cora maintained her SD LE certification as a reserve/part-time officer for the Brookings Police Department. Cora and her husband reside east of Brookings with their 4 children.

Community Service Officers:

Kyler Mahler, Community Service Officer

NEW EMPLOYEE ANNOUNCEMENT

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Police Department is excited to introduce Kyler Mahler as the newest CSO with the City of Brookings Police Department on February 21, 2024.

Kyler is currently attending South Dakota State University majoring in Natural Resource Law Enforcement and minoring in Criminology.

When not at work Kyler enjoys, camping, spending time with his friends, and playing pool.

Liv Hanson, Community Service Officer

NEW EMPLOYEE ANNOUNCEMENT

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Police Department is excited to introduce Liv Hanson as the newest CSO with the City of Brookings Police Department on , March 20,2024.

Liv is currently a Sophomore at South Dakota State University majoring in Criminology with a minor in Psychology.

When not at work Liv enjoys, spending time with her friends, family and her dogs, Berkley and Ronnie. She also enjoys traveling, ESPECIALLY to warm places, with the hopes of getting to all 50 states by the time she's 30!!

Matthew Ridgeway, Community Service Officer

NEW EMPLOYEE ANNOUNCEMENT

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Police Department is excited to introduce Matthew Ridgeway as the newest CSO with the City of Brookings Police Department on January 12th, 2024.

Matthew is currently attending SDSU to receive his bachelor's in Natural Resources Law Enforcement with minors in Criminal Justice and Farm and Ranch management.

When not at work Matthew enjoys hanging out with friends and playing Basketball, Pool, and Lacrosse.

Isabell Vree, Community Service Officer

NEW EMPLOYEE ANNOUNCEMENT

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Police Department is excited to introduce Isabell Vree as one of the Community Service Officers with the City of Brookings Police Department who joined on September 18, 2023.

Isabelle is originally from small town Waupun, WI. She enjoys the variety of tasks and jobs she gets to perform in her role as a Community Service Officer and how each day presents something new.

Outside of work, Isabelle runs a cleaning business and for leisure she loves to experiment with all kinds of recipes: baking, cooking, drinks/coffees, anything! And of course above all loves to spend time with her family, two cats, and dog.

Emmie Dittmar, Community Service Officer

NEW EMPLOYEE ANNOUNCEMENT

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Police Department is excited to introduce Emmie Dittmar as the newest CSO with the City of Brookings Police Department on February 26, 2024.

Emmie is currently a Junior at South Dakota State University majoring in Natural Resource Law Enforcement and minoring in Criminal Justice.

When not at work Emmie enjoys, spending time with her friends, family and her dog Willow. She also enjoys spending time outdoors, especially on the lake.

Hudson Spoonemore, Community Service Officer

NEW EMPLOYEE ANNOUNCEMENT

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Police Department is excited to introduce Hudson Spoonemore as the newest CSO with the City of Brookings Police Department on January 11th, 2024.

Hudson is currently attending SDSU to receive his bachelor's in Natural Resource Law Enforcement with a minor in Criminal Justice.

When not at work Hudson enjoys golfing, playing video games, and spending time with his friends and family.

Aiden Metcalfe, Community Service
Officer

NEW EMPLOYEE ANNOUNCEMENT

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Police Department is excited to introduce Aiden Metcalfe as the newest CSO with the City of Brookings Police Department on January 18th, 2024.

Aiden is currently attending SDSU to receive his bachelor's in Natural Resource Law Enforcement.

When not at work Aiden is an avid outdoorsman that enjoys shooting and weight lifting.