Programming:

Kids:

- ✚ As of Wednesday, June 3, 924 kids have registered for the Summer Reading Program! In 2025 total registrations were 960.
- ✚ In the first week and half of events, there has been an attendance of 1,500!
- ✚ The Zoo Man had a wonderful attendance of 500 people and the Bike Rodeo had around 200!
- ✚ The "Paleontologist for a Day" on Wednesday, June 10, will be the most challenging event of the summer, with a number of different activities for families and kids to enjoy.

Teens:

- ✚ Summer Reading Registration is off to a great start with 105 teens registered already!
- ✚ Programming in May was on the lighter side as the teens have so many end of school things going on, however
  - 12 painting tiles for the 250th Celebration mural for the VFW
  - 8 participated in Workshop Wednesday and made beaded embroidery hoops.
- ✚ June teen activities are:
  - Hang zone
  - Abstract Portraits
  - Beaded plants for Workshop Wednesday,
  - Teens in the Kitchen will be making strawberry crisp
  - Book club is reading and discussing Last Night at the Telegraph Club
  - Graphic Novel club is reading and discussing Blue Flag
- ✚ Jenny is partnering with Mikaela on a new event, Bricks and Flicks, where participants can sign up to receive a Lego set they can work on while they watch a movie. June's movie is Jurassic Park
- ✚ Jenny is also partnering with the Teen Center at the Boys & Girls Club, where she'll be doing Workshop Wednesday with their teens once a month during the summer! If all goes well, this could turn into an all-year partnership.
