

Mission Statement:

The mission of the Brookings Public Library is to inspire curiosity and discovery, advance knowledge, and strengthen the Brookings community through diverse and inclusive collections, services, and programs.

Vision Statement:

The Brookings Library will be an inclusive, diverse, and engaging center of our community where all are welcome to learn, discover, create, and connect.