

Librarian's Report
December 2025

Programming:

Kids:

- ✚ Fall programming season ended the week before Thanksgiving.
- ✚ The Wednesday series of programs has been well received by families and will continue in the spring.
- ✚ The Children's department represented the Library in the Festival of Lights Parade on Friday, December 5.
- ✚ Santa visited the Library for a Holiday story time on Saturday, December 6.
- ✚ Life-sized Candyland will be back for the school holiday break December 22-24, and December 29 – January 2.
- ✚ Most of December will be finalizing the layout and shifting of books with the new shelving, as well as creating LOTS of new signage.

Teens:

- ✧ Three teens braved the snowy weather and iffy roads to make Bacon Cheddar Gnocchi soup.
- ✧ 7 teens attended spa night and enjoyed making bath bombs, sugar scrub, and bath salts.
- ✧ Snack club continues to be popular with 12 participants each month. In the new year Jenny plans to extend the registration to 15.
- ✧ Looking ahead:
  - There are 2 Workshop Wednesdays – embroidered ornaments and sweater shelves.
  - Cookie crawl
  - The Swiftmas party
  - Teen Movie matinee after Christmas.

Adults:

- ❖ Advance read-aloud-book club has resumed and have had 27 attendees. This will resume in 2026 after the holiday break.
- ❖ Spa night was a blast! 17 attendees made soothing spa supplies and the room smelled like a Bath and Body Works by the end of the evening.
- ❖ Frybread and Film night didn't go to plan due to catering issues, 20 folks stayed for the movie and popcorn.
- ❖ Coming up is the Cookie Crawl on December 16 from 6:30 -7:30

Tech:

- The large format printer has been set up, waiting on paper to finish install.

Other:

- The bathroom remodel began on Monday, November 17. The upstairs bathrooms are open to the public.
- Shelving was installed and re-arranged December 1 – 5. Shelf tops and end panels were delayed and will be installed December 8 – 12.
- The Friends of the Library will be doing their Gift Wrapping Fundraiser Saturday, December 20 and Sunday, December 21.
