

Librarian's Report
January 2021

Programming:

Kids:

- Katherine is taking a short break from programming because of the weather and the holidays. She will be doing to-go crafts through January.

Teens:

- Katie is on maternity leave until February 1st. Grace will take over Anime Club while Katie is gone. Other teen programs will begin again when Katie gets back.

Adults:

- The Fiction and Non-fiction Book clubs take a break in January. Booked for Murder's January author was Amy Stewart.
- Mikaela is teaching a Bullet Journaling class January 12th.
- Signups for the first ever Spice of Life Club begin January 19th. The first month's spice is cardamom. Participants receive pre-measured spices and special ingredients, a recipe, and other information about the spice. Then they share their thoughts, questions, and food photos in the Spice Club Facebook group.
- The Winter Reading Program started January 4th and runs until April 2nd. Participants can pick up a Bingo card at the Circulation Desk or request one through Curbside Pick-up.

Other:

The Library is closed for Martin Luther King Jr. Day, January 18th.

Ashia is back from maternity leave January 19th.
