This resolution will award the Bob Shelden Public Art Project to Reed Madden Designs for the contract price of $190,000.

Background:

In February 2016 the City Council established the Dedicated Public Art Fund and created the Public Arts Commission to provide oversight of the fund and to advance public art in the City of Brookings. In October 2019 the Public Arts Commission voted to pursue a public art project in coordination with the Bob Shelden Athletic Complex Renovation. A total project budget of $200,000 was identified for the project and brought to Council for preliminary approval in early 2020.

Fiscal Impact:

The City would enter into a contract with Reed Madden Design for the amount of $190,000 and is within the specified project budget.

The current balance of the 2020 Dedicated Art Fund expense line item is $229,238.

Recommendation:

The City Council has the following options:

1. Approve as presented
2. Amend
